

Biography

Chris Miklich Chief Financial Officer

Chris Miklich joined Swagelok Company in 2001 and was named chief financial officer in 2019. In this role, Chris is committed to moving the company forward by driving profitability and growth, leading by example, and developing a strong team.

During his tenure, Chris has served in all areas and all levels of leadership within the finance department. He gained broad experience in accounts payable, accounts receivable, financial reporting, cost accounting, and treasury and was promoted to manager, tax and cash management in 2008.

From 2013 to 2015, he served as director of tax and treasury at Consolidated Precision Products. He rejoined Swagelok as director of tax in 2015 and was later promoted to treasurer and director of tax and payroll.

Chris has been a key contributor to Swagelok's successful investment and hedging program. He also led the transformation of the organization's tax function, partnering with PricewaterhouseCoopers to combine the strengths of Swagelok's team with best-in-class industry knowledge.

Outside of work, Chris enjoys spending time with his two daughters, and he is an avid sports fan. He is proud to serve as a trustee for the Swagelok Foundation, as well as on the boards of the Great Lakes Science Center and First Tee of Cleveland, which teaches children life skills and values through the game of golf.

Chris holds a bachelor's degree in finance and an M.B.A., both from John Carroll University.
