Since 1965, Swagelok Pittsburgh | Tri-State Area has been the region's local Swagelok Fluid-System resource.

We've reorganized our website – to make it easier and faster for you to find the key Swagelok and/or Swagelok Pittsburgh | Tri-State Area Product and Support Services information to help ensure optimum performance in even your most challenging applications.

1 START ON OUR REVAMPED HOME PAGE

Watch our brief Capabilities Overview video to hear Greg Hines, our President, and Jim Kasperik, our Operations & Quality Director, detail our ongoing commitment to always deliver the premium-quality, leak-tight products and supplemental strategic offerings – component selection expertise, safety training, masterful and warranted custom fabrication, pristine rental tools, comprehensive energy-loss evaluations and industrial hose advisories – to help you exceed internal and external expectations, job after job after job.

2 WATCH OUR NEW BEING VISUAL VIDEO...

...that walks you through all the updated easy-to-access Marketing resources that we've added to our site – from the latest Swagelok Company materials to our own localized library of free, helpful assets – to help you better serve your customers...as you get more out the door on-time, on-plan, and on-budget.

3 PERUSE OUR VAST COLLECTION...

...of Swagelok case studies, recent email blasts, FLOW quarterly newsletters, and other timely literature – all in pdf format – that showcase exactly how we can help you bridge the expansive knowledge gap created by retiring workers, conform to rigid and ever-increasing regulations, address overall operational time, money, worry, and risk concerns.....and so much more.
